The Dry Strait Channel Is Practically Sure Thing

In a telegram received by Mr. F. Matheson last Saturday came the glad news from Delegate Wickersham that the Dry Strait item which appropriates $25,000 for a survey and report of the Dry Strait canal has been included in the Appropriation Bill which was taken before the House last Friday.

The telegram reads as follows, "F. Matheson, Chamber of Commerce, Wrangell, Alaska. Dry Strait survey item included in appropriation bill yesterday. Sure to pass. James Wickersham, Delegate from Alaska."

Fred Purinton Leases Rink

Fred Purinton the popular show man was a passenger to Ketchikan on the City of Seattle Wednesday morning. Fred is returning to Ketchikan to close up his business in the first city after which he will return here and take charge of the Rink Theater. Fred is one of the best boosters in the world and we welcome him to our live little city with open arms.

The local business houses have all done some very tasty window dressing during the past week.

What this will mean for Wrangell is something that every citizen of the town knows. It will mean that the government will take hold of this proposition and it is assured that it will be carried through, and before many years the vessels that are now forced to either go through Wrangell Narrows or take to the outside will have a safe and easy waterway besides making the distance much shorter between Wrangell and Juneau.

Things are coming our way, let us all get in and help boost and be ready for the ways of prosperity coming to Wrangell.

Popular Entertainers Are Back Again

Woodworth and Purcell, the well-known entertainers arrived up from Ketchikan on the Alki Tuesday evening. The boys are too well known to need any introduction, and will fill an engagement with the Wrangell Photoshow for the holidays and promise some good new numbers.

The holiday vacation is on and the school children are off from their studies for the next two weeks. The separate rooms held programs yesterday afternoon.

Wrangell Basket Ball Team Will Play Ketchikan

The Wrangell Basket Ball team received a challenge from the Ketchikan Basket Ball team the first of the week, and after a meeting of the team the boys decided to accept, the game to be played at Ketchikan on New Years day and a return game played here on the eleventh of next month. Mr. Chas. Lynch was elected manager of the team. The boys have been out of practice for some time but under the able training of Dr. Pigg the boys will be in first class shape by the day of the game. These games should be encouraged and the business houses of the city should take an interest and help the boys along.

Card Party Is Great Success

The card party and dance given by the ladies of the Catholic Church last Thursday evening at Red Men's Hall was a decided success in every way. During the first part of the evening cards were the diversion and after the games a bounteous luncheon was served after which the crowd adjourned to the ball room where the rest of the evening was spent in dancing to the strains of some very good music.

The party was a success financially and the ladies cleared a good sum to be used for church expenses.

There will be a big Christmas Dance at the Wrangell Photoshow Christmas night after the show. Everyone invited and assured a good time,

Wrangell Wins Basket Ball Game

Wrangell was treated to something good in the sport line last Monday night in the line of a good basket ball game between the local boys and the Hydaburg team, stiled champions of the West Coast which title they won by defeating the Klawock team on Nov. 20 to the score of 24 to 8.

But the game last Monday night left them a different story, as the local boys won on a score of 27 to 20.

The game was called at the Rink at 8:30 P. M. and the fun started. The first half ended with the score 17 to 6 in favor of Wrangell, but in the second the visiting boys made a good run so at the close of the game they were only seven behind the local team.

The game came as a surprise to the local team as they did not know that Hydaburg was thinking of playing them until they arrived in town Friday night and wanted to play Saturday but as the local boys were out of practice they held the game until Monday evening. Wrangell certainly has a good basket ball team and one that she can support against any town in the country without a doubt that the boys will bring home the bacon. All the boys need is a little practice and Capt. Lynch states that he is going to see that the team get in first class shape at once so at the return game at Hydaburg in the near future the score is going to be a way up for Wrangell.

Body Of Missing Man Is Found Floating In Bay

George Card left town Thursday afternoon about two o'clock bound for Vanks Island, in his gas boat and when about two miles from Wrangell he saw something floating in the channel that had the appearance of a mans head so stopping the gas boat he got in a skiff and went to investigate and found the body of a man. He fastened a rope around the body and made it fast to the skiff and then came into town and reported the find to the authorities. The authorities dispatched him for it and he towed it into town where a coroners jury was drawn to make an investigation, and it was found to be the body of John Wilson, a native of Sweden about 25 years of age who disappeared from Wrangell on the 12th of November.

Dr. Pigg was called and an examination was made of the body and after hearing several witnesses called Friday morning the jury returned a verdict of "Death in a manner unknown to the jury."

The death seems to be the outcome of a case of intoxication as John Wilson on the 12th of November bought a big jug of whiskey and in company with George Bell and George Wilson, both natives, went down the channel below the graveyard and that night all went on a big drunk. The next day the body of George Wilson was found on the beach there, and when Geo. Bell was put on the stand he stated that he had got good and drunk and went to bed leaving the other two men up, and when he woke up the next morning neither man was aboard and the skiff was gone, and that after waiting all day, he concluded they had come to town so went on down the channel in quest of a wood log. And when he came back to town he learned of the drowning of George Wilson, and the disappearance of the other man whose body was found Thursday.

Christmas, the Season of the Star, is the day when all the world is kin, when good fellowship shines in the countenance and nestles warmly in the heart of humanity.

It is the season of one great common thought, a thought which once a year brings pause to an overwrought generation. Money at one extreme balances charity at the other, and both seem to breed at best dismal anxieties. But Christmas, with its lone message of Love, can stand only for itself and brooks no dispute, since Love, down at the base of things, is the universal sentiment, which, for the time, unites all in common understanding.

And so the Star shines bright and high. The whole world sees it with but one thought, and that thought fills all hearts. Over the earth it rises in solemn dignity; to some a beacon, to others a conscience.

Everywhere, in either extreme, hearts turn to the Star shining so brightly above. And in turning they find the common brotherhood. It is a season of reflection, a season when man does not want to reason about those things for which he struggles and contends. In the solemn stillness of contemplation life becomes a mighty truth.

The Star bids the world to soften itself, to mellow hope, fear and ambition with sentiment. And if men heed, the door of humanity's heart opens to absorb sweetness and consolation, which may be banished later, but the recollection remains and haunts—until the Star shines again.

Big dance at the Rink tonight after the show.

A good show at the Wrangell Photoshow tonight.

Both churches are giving their Christmas tree and program tonight. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Frank Waterberry returned on the Alki Tuesday morning from a trip to Seattle. Frank says Seattle is on the bum and that Wrangell looks good to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leonard arrived over on the Dan yesterday and have rented the house of Al Spader near the court house where they will live for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grant returned home on the City of Seattle after a two weeks business trip to Seattle and other points in the states.

Nick Nussbaumer and Darby Choquette were passengers for Wrangell on the Humboldt from Juneau where they have been for the past two months.

Carl Carlson was a passenger from Ketchikan on the City of Seattle to spend the holidays with his parents. Carl is attending high school in the first city.

Captain Smith of the Salvation Army has been a busy man for the past week making arrangements for a Christmas Tree at the barracks Christmas evening. The tree will be a public affair and everyone is invited to attend.

Fred Willson, manager of the local saw mill, arrived on the Alki last Tuesday morning from an extended trip to the states. During his stay below Fred was as far south as San Diego where he visited with his mother, but says he wouldn't trade this part of Alaska for the whole country.

When in Ketchikan spend an evening at the "The Dream," the house that sets the PACE. All others try to copy.

National Forest Homesteads Law

New Orders Affect Cards, Slot Machines

On account of numerous inquiries from the Public and an apparent misunderstanding on the part of many people with reference to the application of the Homestead law within the National Forests, W. G. Weigle, Forest Supervisor of the Tongass and Chugach National Forests with headquarters at Ketchikan, Alaska, states that since June 11, 1906, all land within the National Forests not needed for public purposes and more valuable for agriculture than for any other purpose has been open for homesteading in units not exceeding 160 acres, and that thousands of homesteaders have already taken advantage of this law within the National Forests of Alaska and the States.

In Alaska, he says that up to November 15, 1914, 75 applications had been received for homesteads in the Tongass National Forest and 115 applications had been received for homesteads in the Chugach National Forest and that he had made a preliminary survey of all of these claims and that favorable reports were submitted on all of the claims except a few that had to be rejected on account of conflicting with claims of prior right. He states that the homesteader on unsurveyed land within the National Forest has the advantage over the homesteader on unsurveyed land outside of the National Forest.

FIRST—That the Forest Service since 1913 makes the survey for patent free of charge, thus saving the claimant from one to two hundred dollars, nine such surveys having been made on the Tongass National Forest during the summer of 1914 and nearly twice that number will be ready for survey on the Tongass and Chugach Forests during the summer of 1915.

SECOND—Outside of the National Forests the law requires that the boundary lines of a homestead be run in cardinal directions, north, south, east and west, while inside the National Forests the boundary lines may be run to suit the shape of the tract of agricultural land.

Since there is very little land sectionized either inside or outside of the National Forests in Alaska the making of the patent survey by the forest service free of charge is a decided advantage to the homesteader. The requirements of the law for proving up on a homestead are the same inside of a National Forest as they are outside, and if the homestead law is reasonably complied with the securing of patent is certain regardless as to whether it is inside or outside of a National Forest. He states most emphatically that the Forest Service not only now but always has invited legitimate settlement within the National Forests and that all statements to the contrary have either been made from lack of information or a desire to misstate the facts. He also states that all Forest officers will always be glad to give information to the Public relative to homesteads or any other National Forest business, and he invites the Public to prove this statement by seeing a Forest Ranger or writing to the Forest Supervisor at Ketchikan, Alaska.

The sole purpose of the order stated a federal official yesterday, "is to stop gambling and not to work a hardship upon anyone. The officers are in earnest about this matter and intend to enforce the law in such a way that gambling will be entirely eliminated. Those who have been abusing the privileges accorded them have only themselves to blame. There are not enough officers in the whole of Alaska to watch every house and devote all of their time in an effort to secure direct evidence with which to convict."

Not knowing just how far the order went towards card games, a number of saloons and other places last night stopped all card games for trade in their places.

—Juneau Dispatch.

Charles Peel, the well known engineer on the Alki, was married in Seattle during the last stay of that vessel there to Miss Irene Grass, the head auditor for McDonald & Southwick's.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON FINAL ACCOUNT AND PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATRIX'S FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Acting upon the order of the district attorney, the marshal's office yesterday ordered all slot machines to be closed at 8 o'clock last night, as well as all other "gambling devices."

The order was not unexpected. For some time there has been a strong intimation that "something was about to drop." It had been a well known fact about town and a matter of public comment that "gambling was flourishing" in Juneau in different forms.

Complaints began to reach the city officers and the latter notified certain houses that gambling would have to cease, efforts to secure evidence for conviction having failed owing to the unwillingness of anyone to swear to a complaint.

Included in the sweeping order are all games of chance and raffles and prize offers upon coupon contests, whether for individual firms or church fairs and charitable purposes.

The officers are not committal as to whether card games for trade are included, but it is understood that card games for strictly trade purposes will not be molested, unless a complaint is made and sworn to. Game for "high bingles," however are included, upon the assumption that the playing for bingles leads to gambling and can easily be abused.

"The sole purpose of the order" stated a federal official yesterday,

"is to stop gambling and not to work a hardship upon anyone.

The officers are in earnest about this matter and intend to enforce the law in such a way that gambling will be entirely eliminated.

Those who have been abusing the privileges accorded them have only themselves to blame.

There are not enough officers in the whole of Alaska to watch every house and devote all of their time in an effort to secure direct evidence with which to convict."

Ironing Tablecloths.

The effect of a lovely linen tablecloth is often spoiled by the network of creases caused by folding it. In the future when ironing the cloth fold it once through the middle, roll and tie with a piece of tape. In this manner there will be but the one crease and the tablecloth will be flat and smooth upon the table.—Indianapolis Star.

To Illustrate.

Example as well as precept was furnished to the youthful autograph fad who wrote to one of the world's richest men, asking for an "autograph sentiment" and inclosing a two cent stamp for his reply. Over his opulence's signature came the prompt response—on a postcard:

"A penny saved is a penny earned."
